

To display the video conference image through an LCD projector:

- 1 Plug in and turn on the LCD projector.
- 2 Connect the LCD projector to the video conference equipment.
- 3 Change the input on the LCD projector to S-Video.

! With this set up, the image from the video conference system will display through the LCD projector at all times. See the equipment user guide for alternative set up options.